

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Friends, and Valued Partners,

I am writing to you today with a sincere and humble heart about a challenge facing our family and our ability to remain in ministry with Alliance Missions in El Salvador.

As many of you know, our mission requires us to raise a significant portion of our own compensation. This financial partnership is what allows us to dedicate our lives fully to the work God has called us to.

Lately, we have been facing a significant shortfall in our personal support. As of today, we only have approximately $400 in recurring monthly commitments. While God has been faithful through unexpected one-time gifts, we currently need to establish a more consistent foundation to ensure our long-term stability.

🎯 Our Immediate Goal: Three Months of Stability

To meet the organization's standard and secure our family's future here, we have two urgent needs:

- 1. Catch-Up Support: We need to raise $6,000 within the next month. This will bring our personal support three months ahead, providing us with a critical buffer.
- 2. Consistent Monthly Partners: We need to find an additional $1,600 in recurring monthly support to complete our $2,000 monthly goal.

This essential monthly need can be met through committed partners like you!

For example, this could look like:

- 16 partners committing to $100 per month
- 32 partners committing to $50 per month
- 64 partners committing to $25 per month

⚠ The Deeper "Ask"

I am always thrilled to ask for support for our ministries and projects in El Salvador—and you, our partners, have responded faithfully to those calls! However, it is much harder for me to ask for my family's personal needs.

The truth is, while we are called to serve, our family also needs basic necessities—food, shelter, and clothing—to survive and remain effective. This personal support is the foundation that enables us to keep the ministry running. When you contribute to our personal support, you are directly investing in our presence and permanence on the field.

I am humbled to share this vulnerability with you and ask for your help. Your commitment isn't just a donation; it's a direct partnership that allows us to stay in El Salvador and continue this vital Kingdom work.

📞 Will You Partner With Us?

Please consider two ways you can partner with us today:

PRAY: Please pray for our family's financial stability and for God to raise up new, consistent partners.

GIVE: Would you consider becoming one of the new monthly supporters we need? Every amount helps us move closer to our goal.

Thank you for reading, for your prayers, and for considering how you might help ensure our family remains fully dedicated to the mission in El Salvador.

Blessings, Tony Escalante
